

Directions from the Boise Municipal Airport to the Idaho Rocky Mountain Ranch

There are two ways to get to the Ranch from the Boise airport. Taking Highway 55 to Highway 21 is less winding, but taking Highway 21 the whole way is a more direct route from the airport. Both drives are very scenic, and take between 2 ½-3 hours. The office staff consensus is that Hwy 55 is the better route. If anyone in your party is susceptible to motion sickness, you're wise to avoid the Hwy 21 route!
